In an effort to improve the irrigation efficiency of the ranch, a modernized pivot irrigation system was installed over areas that were previously flood irrigated. This application proposes to change the place of use of existing water rights as a result of the new irrigation practice. This application and two accompanying applications will move a total of 404.5 irrigated acres to the proposed place of use. A total of 113.5 acre-feet of water will be moved to the point of diversion as described under cancelled Permit 23633.

16. Miscellaneous remarks:
