D. D. Johnson, being first duly sworn, depose and say that this Map, consisting of one sheet, has been correctly drawn to the designated scale from field notes of a survey made by me on April 27th & April 28th, 1948 and that it truly and correctly represents the proposed location of the works used to divert water from a Pond in Manhattan gulch in Nye County by Fred L. Cole, Elcey Cole Williams, Florence Livingston as executrix of the Estate of Florence L. Kirchen, deceased, for Mining purposes. That the proposed point of diversion and return are fully and correctly designated thereon.

D. D. Johnson
State Water Right Surveyor.
