I, Robert R. Squires, being duly sworn, depose and say that this map consisting of one sheet has been correctly drawn to the designated scale, from field notes of a survey made by me on May 13, 2002, and U.S. Geological Survey Topographic Maps. The map truly represents the works to divert water from an underground source in Washoe County, Nevada, for stockwater use by Tim Lawson. The location of the point of diversion is correctly designated hereon.
