Findings:

From the recommendations of the Southern Nevada Well Driller's Advisory Board and from records in this office, we find that:

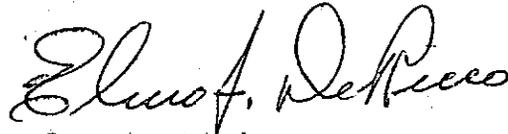

1. The references given by the applicant are inadequate.
2. To the best knowledge of the Southern Nevada Well Driller's Advisory Board and the office of the State Engineer, the applicant does not own any drilling equipment and has never owned drilling equipment, even in his former operations.
3. To the best available information and from the record, there is no evidence that the applicant has any experience in drilling wells as a working well driller.
4. The applicant's license was revoked by this office on June 29, 1955, and by the State Contractor's Board on May 24, 1956, because of his violation of State regulations, lack of cooperation and integrity, at great expense to the public.

RULING

The Application for Well Driller's License of Thomas D. de Bruyn is herewith denied on grounds that its granting would be detrimental to the public welfare.

Respectfully submitted,
