Gentlemen:

You are hereby directed to comply fully with this ORDER prior to the beginning of the coming irrigation season which is set for March 15, 1957 on the Humboldt River and its tributaries:

1. Comply fully with the Order of the State Engineer dated June 12, 1953 and install suitable headgates and measuring devices at your legally established points of diversion.
2. Cease the use of, and remove all structures from the channels at all diversion points not legally established.
3. Remove all structures you have placed in the channels which have not been approved by the State Engineer's office.
4. Open all natural channels and water courses that have been filled in by your recent leveling operations until such time as you have received the approval of the State Engineer's office of a method of conveying water through your property.

Very truly yours,

HUGH A. SHAMBERGER
 State Engineer
