(19) The map provided by the State Engineer and attached hereto as a part of this proof is hereby accepted as correctly showing the ditch lines or irrigation works diverting or conveying the water claimed and the lands irrigated.

(20) Water from the source given and through the works described is also used for the following purposes other than irrigation: Domestic purposes

(21) Remarks: In 1897 The then living husband of this claimant together with three of his brothers bought this land. The husband of this claimant died and the interest of two of the brothers was first bought out and at last all the title remained in this claimant and her brother-in-law John H. Rosevear. In the spring of 1913 this claimant bought the rights of John H. Rosevear and she is now the sole owner of this land. This land being in the U. S. National Forest this claimant has now had the same platted and has applied for it under the U. S. Homestead laws. She has lived on this land continuously since 1897 and has used the water each year.

Bessie Rosevear
