Remarks: M. L. Riordan, the father of the applicant, first used this spring in 1885, and continued to use the same until his death in 1908; since that time it has been used by this applicant, continuously, who purchased the assets of his father's estate. No troughs have been installed at this spring but every year it has been cleaned out and kept in good condition for stock watering purposes by this applicant and used continuously by him and his father for that purpose. A small earth and rock dam or reservoir is located right at the spring and constantly maintained by the applicant.

Remarks: All the real estate, personal property, range and water rights were conveyed to the applicant by the heirs of the said M. L. Riordan, and the deed conveying the same is recorded in the office of the County Recorder of Nye County, Nevada; the range and water rights were not specifically mentioned and described in said deed but were conveyed generally.
