The watering was conducted during each of the following months The first year of use was prior to 1896 with use by sheep and cattle as evidenced by records referred to under "Remarks" (Exhibit "A"). These records also indicate that from the first year of use to 1896 there were fluctuations of numbers, and by 1896 the numbers had become established at 400 animal units. Use was made during the period of May 15 to October 15..

(10) The approximate number of animals watered by the claimant in subsequent years was as follows: [If water was not used, or used in reduced quantity at any time, full information as to causes and duration of non-use should be given] Use of this source was made by sheep and cattle for an equivalent of 400 animal units, with all use by sheep being gradually converted to cattle use. The number of animals watered subsequent to 1896 has remained at the equivalent of 400 animal units, except during period of drought or herd reduction for economic reasons..

Remarks - Remarks concerning evidence of priority are attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

The source of water for this proof is located within the Humboldt River basin. However, the waters produced do not reach a channel which is a tributary to the Humboldt River except for a short period of time during the Spring runoff. During that period of time, livestock are normally not in the area and there is no use made of the source during such runoff.

The source and place of use of the water lie within an allotment composed of private land owned by the claimant and public domain, with the season of use and numbers of livestock at the present time being established pursuant to Bureau of Land Management regulations and administration. Conditions contained in the grazing permit, together with variations in annual weather conditions and growth, will cause variations in the numbers of livestock and period of use from this source. The period of use and number of livestock shown in this proof are considered to represent the average with consideration for the factors set forth above.

Within the drainage area or sub-basin of the channel there are two (2) springs located in Sections 9 and 10, Township 37 North, Range 50 East, MDM which contribute to the flow of the channel during a portion of the season. This claim is for all waters tributary to the channel within the described reach and includes the springs.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that the facts relative to the appropriation of water by 26 RANCH, INC., a Colorado corporation are full and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief. [If proof is not made by claimant, deponent should state on this line by virtue of what authority he represents the claimant].

As vested livestock water is not necessarily appurtenant to owned lands, the acquisition of the lands described in the documents referred to above does not in itself evidence the transfer of vested stockwaters upon the open range. However, it was the common practice to include in the conveyance of owned lands all water rights associated therewith and the chains of title given above serve to evidence the stockwater rights transfer by predecessors in interest to the claimant.

Priority of Use and Numbers of Livestock:

Use of waters on portions of the property prior to 1876 is found. For example, in a deed executed September 14, 1876, John A. Blossom, a predecessor of the claimant, conveys to R.N. Graves, et al. all pasture along Rock Creek, Willow Creek, Summit Creek and Frazier Creek, a portion of said creeks being in the vicinity of the source. Said deed states that the grantor owns substantial cattle in that area. This document is recorded in Book 8 of Deeds at Page 127, Elko County, Nevada.

Elko County tax assessment records were reviewed for evidence of livestock owned by predecessors prior to 1905. These records revealed the following:

Predecessor	Tax Year	No. of Livestock
Monitor Land and Livestock Kaiser, Mrs. E.B. and Charles	1894	7,500 Sheep
George W. Grayson	1904	7,075 Sheep
	1896	800 Cattle
		200 Horses
Russell & Bradley Land and Cattle Company	1894	2,000 Cattle
		200 Horses

Chattel mortgages recorded in the office of the County Recorder of Elko County evidence the ownership of in excess of 18,000 sheep by W.T. Jenkins, with numbers varying over a period of years.

Publications concerning history of Northern Nevada were also reviewed. Nevada's Northeast Frontier, by Patterson, Ulph & Goodwin reports the following:

- Warren W. Williams - Owned in excess of 40,000 sheep - Page 417
- George Russell (Russell Land & Cattle Co.) - Used St. Johns Field with 1,000 steers - Page 374

History of Nevada by Thomas Wren, published in 1904, reports on Page 564 that W.T. Jenkins owned 22,000 head of sheep in Elko, Lander and Humboldt Counties.

These numbers, the sheep and horses being converted to cattle equivalents or animal units on the basis of 7 sheep being equal to 1 cow, and 1 horse being equal to each cow, as concerns water requirements, results in the following:

Monitor Land and Livestock	1,070 Animal Units
Kaiser, Mrs. E.B. & Charles	Same as Monitor Land and Livestock
George W. Grayson	1,000 Animal Units
Russell & Bradley Land and Cattle Company	2,200 Animal Units
Warren W. Williams (Portion Owned by Claimant)	5,714 Animal Units
W.T. Jenkins Company (18,000 Sheep)	2,571 Animal Units
	12,555 Animal Units

In some instances, particularly with Warren W. Williams, the claimant's primary predecessor, who was W.T. Jenkins Company, acquired a portion of a total operation. In order to establish the total operation of W.T. Jenkins Company after acquisition of the properties, various records were reviewed.

A chattel mortgage executed by W.T. Jenkins Company to Nevada Livestock Production Credit Association, filed May 23, 1942 in the office of the Elko County Recorder as File No. 78390, stated the following numbers of livestock:

Cattle	2,619
Sheep	19,917

In addition, this number reflects the conversion of the sheep use to cattle use.

Richard T. Marvel, who was a family member of W.T. Jenkins Company, in an interview with Walter Leberski on November 13, 1992, stated that during the 1950's, sheep numbers varied from 12,000 to 20,000, with an average of 16,000 head.

By 1960, W.T. Jenkins Company was assessed for 4,640 head of cattle in Elko County, the increase reflecting the purchase of the Twenty-Five Ranch. Richard T. Marvel states that the actual number was nearer 5,000 head of cattle, and as the sheep operation was phased out and use converted to cattle, it became nearer 10,000 head. From the above, the operation which resulted from the established use prior to 1905 by W.T. Jenkins Company and their predecessors was 5,000 head of cattle and 16,000 head of sheep. These numbers were grazed within an area in which this source is located, and the number claimed from the source is based upon the production of water and forage availability. The area of use of Russell Land and Cattle Co. is documented in part by the range claim map filed in the State Water Engineer's office subsequent to the passage of the "Three Mile Limit" statute in 1925 (Map 89-30) and currently by allotment maps of the Bureau of Land Management, Elko District office.

As reviewed above, the priority of use begins prior to 1876 for unknown numbers, but is documented by 1896 and is claimed as the priority of this source.
