of Application Number 82128, filed on April 21, 2016

by Thomas L. and Beverly J. Reichert for the waters of Washington Creek situated in Basin 56, Lander County, Nevada an underground source or name of stream, lake, spring or other source

County, State of Nevada, for the following reasons and on the following grounds, to wit:
The described point of diversion is located on public land within a U.S. Forest Service Grazing Allotment (Washington) upon which the protestant grazes cattle under an active lease and has pre-statutory rights to the water of Washington Creek. The approval of this application will impair the existing rights of senior water right holders, is detrimental to the public interest as applicant does not have access to the land from which the point of diversion is located and the piping of the water from the described point of diversion will deprive existing wild life access to the currently available water.
